

Join the community! Spend the summer living with friends in

SUMMER RESEARCH HOUSING

and receive up to $420!

Join your friends in the 2012 Summer Research Dorm in the Village East Apartments and the Office of Undergraduate Research will pay up to $420* (payable only to Reslife) towards the cost of 10 weeks of on-campus housing for the summer of 2012. This is almost a 25% savings for a double room! (Shorter stays will be pro-rated at $6/day) For MORE INFO and to REGISTER, go to:

Summer Programs and Conferences/Research Housing

Free Social Activities! Last year's activities included weekly barbeques and the City Museum!

*The $420 is a flat refund payable to Reslife only (and will be credited on the Fall 2012 account statement). The refund may not be used to cover the cost of off-campus housing or any meal plans, etc. It is non-refundable and cannot be used for any housing upgrades or fees. Students participating must be WU undergraduates in a research position at Washington University during the time they are living in the dorm and must receive approval from the Office of Undergraduate Research.