

Summer RESEARCH PROGRAMS

FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

(in conjunction with the Division of Biology and Biomedical Sciences) presents a summer speaker series for our Washington University summer interns and current graduate students.

Tuesday Talks

June 13 – July 11, 2017

12:00-1:00 pm

June 13 speakers (Holden Auditorium - FLTC)

Martha Bagnall, Ph.D.: Assistant Professor, Neuroscience

Title: "Balancing acts: The fight against gravity."

&

Daved Fremont, Ph.D.: Professor, Pathology and Immunology

Title: "Mechanisms of viral immune evasion."

June 27 speakers (Holden Auditorium - FLTC)

Carlos Cruchaga, Ph.D.: Associate Professor, Psychiatry

Title: "Genomics, personalized medicine and Alzheimer's Disease."

&

Bob Schreiber, Ph.D.: Alumni Endowed Professor, Pathology and Immunology

Title: "Personalizing cancer immunotherapy."

July 11 speakers (Holden Auditorium - FLTC)

Dave Holtzman, M.D.: Andrew B. and Gretchen P. Jones Professor and Chairman, Neurology

Title: "Why we should be optimistic about preventing Alzheimer's Disease."

&

Vicky Fraser, M.D.: Adolphus Busch Professor and Chair, Internal Medicine

Title: "Prevention and control of hospital acquired infections and antibiotic resistance."

Pizza will be served.

Bring your water bottle and/or your own beverage of choice.